Show Me The Way

August, 2016
Volume 37, Issue 8

As we have traveled around the United States (and beyond), almost every week someone has asked us to "show me the way." How can I connect with my children in order to raise a new generation of responsible adults.

We had lunch with a mother in China. We met with parents in England. I just recently had a conversation with a man in Utah.

Each of them expressed, in their own words, a tremendous sadness over the choices their kids were making and asked; "Can you show me the way to re-connect with my kids?"

The answer is easy - doing it is hard.

We spend time teaching parents how to incorporate "The Three Cornerstones" and "The Four Core Needs" of Life Is Full Of Choices into a system where they can win the hearts and minds of their children. Then love them no matter what their choices are.

The hard part is that re-building relationships with others is never easy. It doesn't matter if you are trying to re-build a relationship with God, with family members or people from your community.

Re-building that relationship takes time, effort and energy. It does not happen by itself - no matter what the popular author says in his newest book.

It takes work. But that work will produce results - and those results will last for eternity!

That is our passion, that is our call. We want to "Show them the way!"

In His grip,

John

Answered Prayer

We have had a great time sharing with three Churches so far.

We will be returning to two of those Churches for more teaching times.

Our transmission is working great! Thank you for your continued prayers for our safety in travel!

Prayer Requests

On August 6th and 7th we will be at Colbert Chapel in Colbert, WA. Then we are scheduled to be in Portland OR at Wichita ECNA August 14th, 21st and 28th in the mornings and at Sunnyside Nazarene in the evenings on the 14th, 21st and 28th and then in September on the 11th and the 18th.

As you can see we are changing the way we schedule our time at Churches. Instead of one service we are trying to extend our time so we get the chance to feed into the people who want to hear what we are saying.

The concepts of Life Is Full Of Choices are radical in scope and can be life changing - but to be effective, they need to be absorbed. We believe an exposure over many weeks is better than a one day event.

Please pray for us as we continue to evaluate how God wants us to present this material.

P.S. I said our passion - our call, is to "show people the way".

For us to do what God has called us to do we need your help.

We need you to pray for us.

All the effort in the world will not amount to a hill of beans unless people are praying for that effort and God is in it. I believe God is in what we are doing - the results tell us that - we just need to make sure that people are bathing our effort in prayer.

Your prayers make our effort your effort. Now we are all working together to accomplish one goal.

For you who are praying - THANK YOU!!!!

We need your financial support.

There are thousands of organizations asking for your financial support. Some of these organizations are actually doing good things for the people they claim to be serving.

For those of you who have chosen to financially support us, thank you does not seem like it is enough for us to say to express our gratitude. Sheryl and I do appreciate your faithfulness. Please let us know what God is doing in your life and how you are affecting those around you!

The choice to financially support a missionary can be life changing for the family who is following the leading of God. For you who are thinking about this next step for your life I pray that God would "show you the way" to take this step of faith and see what God will do through you.

Please understand that I am not talking about God will do for you - but rather what God will do through you. If you want to see God at work through your life maybe this is the next step He has for you to take.

It is my hope that you will ask God if you should support us and then follow His voice! If this is what He wants for you, use this Response Card to send a check. Follow the directions printed on the card.

You can also use the donate button to use PayPal.

Either way we will send you a tax deductible receipt at the beginning of next month.

We value the time you spend with us each month and pray that this time is invigorating your life!
