

In The Rear View Mirror

Wow – what a summer. Your prayers and support have made a huge difference in our life as well as in other people’s lives. Let me see if I can just hit the highlights.

Safety of travel:

- Finding an honest mechanic in the little town of Salina, Utah
- Protecting John from harm when the 5th wheel missed him and landed on the truck
- The 10,259 miles we traveled starting from Dallas, TX all over Oregon, Washington through Los Angeles and back to Dallas, TX

God’s provision:

- The cost of all the seminars and classes on Life Is Full Of Choices
- The cost of the new transmission
- The repair of the truck bed
- The cost of the entire trip

Results of the trip:

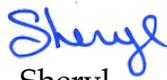

- The 145 different people who attended a seminar and heard the truth about how to be responsible adults
- The people who learned the process and were able to connect with God for the first time
- Connecting with precious people who pray for and support us

The future:

- The doors that were open for return trips to teach and develop leaders
- The possibilities for individuals and groups to reach out to those around them with the truth of a daily interactive and viable relationship with God

As we spend time reflecting on the past four months our hearts are filled with humble grace because of the leading of the Lord. We are encouraged that God is working through us to provide hope in individual lives and Churches. The future, through Him, is full of anticipation and delight. God is working and we all have the privilege of being part of His Kingdom here on earth.

In His Grip,

The Rest of the Story

While Sheryl and I work to start After School Programs here in Dallas or travel around the world teaching parents how to become responsible adults and raise responsible children the real lesson we teach is how to connect with God and build a viable daily relationship with Him.

That is the crux of our ministry.

It is not that we don’t care about kids or parenting, it’s that the most important lesson we can teach other people is to answer their question, “How can I build my relationship with God”. If I will work on my relationship with Him, He will work on all the rest of the issues I have.

My issues are what the enemy uses to keep me from developing my relationship with God.

The result is that my issues also become evident in my being responsible, and how I am raising my children - and those are the areas we use to draw people to take the time and sit down with us so we can teach them how to become better parents.

How can you be a part of this ministry that is helping people in every area of their life?

Answered Prayer

As you can tell from the letter this month is a long “Answer to Prayer” letter.

Thank you for praying for us and our safety as we traveled the past four months!

Prayer Requests

We will hold another SAY Yes! Training on October 22nd. Pray for those who will attend!

Please pray with us that the Lord will help us connect with the leaderships of the Churches with which He wants us to build relationships.

Our hearts are burdened by the up coming election. This has become an exceedingly negative campaign.

We are asking you to prayerfully ask for Gods guidance as you choose the next president.
